President's Message

As you can see from the above logo, the Board of Directors has decided to do business as:

Honolulu Kupuna Shed

This was done in recognition of the fact that we are not a Mens Only organization, but open to both men and women. Meaning of Kupuna: Throughout Hawai'i, this Hawaiian word is widely understood to mean elder. The website is being updated to reflect this change.

At the last board meeting, the board decided that the dues for the next year will be $100.00.

If you paid your dues using a credit card last year, the next years dues will be charged to your credit card on the anniversary of your last payment.

If you would like to cancel your membership, go to the website, www.honolulumensshed.org and login to your account. Go to account>subscriptions, and under Shed Membership, click on cancel.

If this does not work for you, you can send an email to:

shedadmin@honolulumensshed.org

requesting your membership to be cancelled. If you paid by check or cash, you will need to pay your dues on your anniversary date.

Craft Fair

On November 19th, the Shed attended and staffed the Mayor's Craft Fair at the Blaisdell Center. We had several tables where we displayed many items that were hand crafted by members of the Shed. These were for sale at the craft fair.

Tay Parry, Melvin Yokoyama, and Colin Pomer.

Tim O'Donnell and Keith Zellinger.

Thanks to Melvin who organized the event. The table was staffed by Melvin, Colin Pomer, Keith Zellinger, Rick Hobson, and Tim O'Donnell. Glenn Sears brought in some Pizza for all.

The items for sale included picture frames, boxes, cutting boards, Christmas ornaments, pens, pen cases, carved fish, wooden cars and more.

The Shed's crafts were the best at the fair. We were able to sell most of the items we brought with us. The Shed was able to sell our crafts for a sum of more than $1300.00.
